b. Review and approval of Related Party Transactions

i. Audit Committee Approval

Every Related Party Transaction and subsequent Material Modifications shall be subject to the prior approval of the Audit Committee of the Company whether at a meeting of the Committee or by a resolution passed by circulation.

In summary, prior approval of Audit Committee is required for the following Related Party Transactions:

- Where Company is a party;
- Where subsidiary of the Company is a party but the Company is not a party, if the value of such transaction whether entered into individually or taken together with previous transactions during a financial year exceeds ten per cent of the annual consolidated turnover, as per the last audited financial statements of the Company;
- With effect from April 1, 2023, where subsidiary of the Company is a party but the Company is not a party, if the value of such transaction whether entered into individually or taken together with previous transactions during a financial year, exceeds ten per cent of the annual standalone turnover, as per the last audited financial statements of the subsidiary;
- Transaction of the Company and/or its subsidiaries with unrelated parties, the purpose and effect of which is to benefit the Related parties of the Company or any of its subsidiaries.

The Audit Committee will take into account following consideration while dealing with the Related Party Transactions (RPT):

- Nature of relationship with the related party;
- Method and manner of determining the pricing and other commercial terms;
- Whether the transaction is at arm's length;
- Name of the related party and its relationship with the listed entity or its subsidiary, including nature of its concern or interest (financial or otherwise);
- Tenure of the proposed transaction (particular tenure shall be specified);
- Value of the proposed transaction;
- The percentage of the listed entity's annual consolidated turnover, for the immediately preceding financial year, that is represented by the value of the proposed transaction (and for a RPT involving a subsidiary, such percentage calculated on the basis of the subsidiary's annual turnover on a standalone basis shall be additionally provided);
- If the transaction relates to any loans, inter-corporate deposits, advances or investments made or given by the listed entity or its subsidiary:
 - i. details of the source of funds in connection with the proposed transaction;
 - ii. where any financial indebtedness is incurred to make or give loans, inter-corporate deposits, advances or investments,

- iii. nature of indebtedness
 - iv. cost of funds; and
 - v. tenure;
 - vi. applicable terms, including covenants, tenure, interest rate and repayment schedule, whether secured or unsecured; if secured, the nature of security; and
 - vii. the purpose for which the funds will be utilized by the ultimate beneficiary of such funds pursuant to the RPT.
- Justification as to why the RPT is in the interest of the listed entity;
 - A copy of the valuation or other external party report, if any such report has been relied upon;
 - Percentage of the counter-party's annual consolidated turnover that is represented by the value of the proposed RPT on a voluntary basis;

Only those members of the Audit Committee, who are independent directors, shall approve Related Party Transactions. Any entity falling under the definition of Related Parties shall not vote to approve the relevant transaction irrespective of whether the entity is a party to the particular transaction or not.

Omnibus Approval of Audit Committee

If the Audit Committee is satisfied regarding the need of an omnibus approval, it may grant an omnibus approval for the Related Party Transactions proposed to be entered into with the Company which are repetitive in nature and subject to such criteria/conditions as mentioned under in Regulation 17 to 27 of SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 and such conditions as it may consider necessary in line with this policy and in the interest of the Company. Such omnibus approval shall be required to be reviewed on a quarterly basis. Such omnibus approval shall include relevant details as set out in Regulation 23(3) of SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 and shall be valid for a period not exceeding one year and shall require fresh approval after the expiry of one year. Where the need for Related Party Transaction cannot be foreseen and aforesaid details are not available, Audit Committee may grant omnibus approval for such transactions subject to their value not exceeding INR 1,00,00,000 (Indian Rupees One crore) per transaction.

Exemptions from obtaining approval of Audit Committee and Shareholders

Transactions entered into, (i) between two government companies; (ii) between the Company and its wholly owned subsidiary, whose accounts are consolidated with the Company and placed before the shareholders at the general meeting for approval; or (iii) between two wholly-owned subsidiaries of the Company, whose accounts are consolidated with the Company and placed before the shareholders at the general meeting for approval, shall not require prior approval of the Audit Committee or the shareholders of the Company.

However, all Related Party Transactions would continue to be reported to the Audit Committee on a quarterly basis.

ii. Board Approval

The Board shall approve RPTs, which are not in ordinary course of business and/or not at arm's length.

Where the Audit Committee does not approve the RPTs, it shall make its recommendations to the Board for approval.

If prior approval of Board or shareholders has not been taken, then such transaction needs to be ratified within 3 months of the date of entering into contract/ arrangement.

iii. Shareholders' Approval

All material Related Party Transactions defined under Regulation 23 of Listing Regulations, whether in ordinary course of business and/or arm's length basis or not, shall require approval of the Board and shareholders, and the related parties shall abstain from voting on such resolutions irrespective of whether the entity is a party to the particular transaction or not.

Related Party Transactions exceeding the limits prescribed under the Act and not in ordinary course of business and/or arm's length basis, shall require prior approval of the Board and shareholders, respectively.

It is clarified that for Related Party Transactions of unlisted subsidiaries of a listed subsidiary, prior approval of shareholders of the listed subsidiary shall suffice.

c. Material Related Party Transactions

Material Related Party Transactions shall be transactions with Related Parties which exceed the threshold limits prescribed below:
